COMPLETION OF ZAMORA PROJECTS ACQUISITION AND DIRECTOR APPOINTMENT

- Formal completion of acquisition of the Zamora Projects, located adjacent to the world class Fruta del Norte gold project, currently under development by Lundin Gold (TSX: LUG)
- Appointment of Mr. Gary Artmont as a Non-Executive Director
- Permitting for drilling of key targets on Rio Zarza concession advancing, with drilling expected in Q1, 2020

Tempus Resources Ltd (“Tempus” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce completion of its agreement to acquire two Ecuadorian companies, Condor Gold S.A. and MiningSources S.A. (together the “Ecuador Companies”). Together the Ecuador Companies own three mineral exploration concessions (the “Zamora Projects”) adjacent to and within the same district as the world class Fruta del Norte gold project, currently under development by Lundin Gold (TSX: LUG).

The Company is also pleased to advise that Mr. Gary Artmont has been appointed as a Non-Executive Director. Mr. Artmont is a senior exploration geologist with 40+ years of international experience from grassroots to project feasibility studies, in regions including Canada, USA, Mexico, South America, Indonesia, Africa, Russia, China and Mongolia. Mr. Artmont is a recognised expert in epithermal gold mineralisation, and has held senior positions with Rio Tinto, Kennecott Australia, Freeport McMoran Indonesia, Union Carbide, Norilsk Nickel and Ivanhoe Mines. Mr. Artmont has been associated with Tempus’s Rio Zarza and Valle del Tigre properties since 2007, serving as a consultant to Ecometals Limited, the previous owners of the properties.

Permitting for the Company’s maiden drilling program in Ecuador is progressing well, with commencement of the initial drilling program scheduled for Q1, 2020. Results are pending from a geochemical sampling program aimed at refining the existing planned drilling plan, and an airborne geophysical survey has been commissioned, which will commence in December, 2019.

Non-Executive Chairman, Mr. Alexander Molyneux, commented:

“We are pleased to formally welcome Gary to the board of the Company and anticipate what we expect will be his strong contribution to the progression of the Ecuadorian and Canadian Projects, given his vast experience in the mining industry and specially in regard to the exploration sectors in both Ecuador and Canada.”
